4. An adequate showing of the cause of the delay, and that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(a) was unavoidable, is enclosed.

WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

Re: Application No.: 10/657,340
Applicant: Jesse J. Carmichael
Examiner: Stephen Gordon
Art Unit: 3612

Dear Mr. Dayoan:

As per our conversation on March 14, 2006, I am writing this Office Action to ask you to reconsider under Rule CFR1.137(a) Unavoidable Abandonment Of My Patent Application. The patent application was filed on September 8, 2003.

Mr. Dayoan, the reason why the patent was abandoned at the time was because my lawyers didn't have money in their account, and didn't respond to the office actions of the patent office. I was not aware that they didn't have any monies in their account, nor was I informed that they did not respond to the office action. Therefore, I am requesting that you please reconsider my patent application for my invention.

I am enclosing $250.00 for the cost because of the unavoidable situation with my patent.

I have sent the information about my lawyer to the State Consumer Board of the Attorney General of the State of New York.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Jesse J. Carmichael
